

Summit County Court of Common Pleas-General Division
Adult Probation Department - Relocation
May 27, 2008

For immediate release:

The Adult Probation Department of the Summit County Court of Common Pleas – General Division is relocating from 25 North Main Street to 53 University Avenue effective Monday, June 2, 2008.

The Adult Probation Department will occupy the first and second floors of the County Safety Building.

Administrative Judge, Elinore Marsh Stormer, commented on the relocation, stating, “The General Division and County Executive Office look forward to improvements in logistical support and service enhancements as a result of relocation. The availability of parking near the facility is greatly improved and will allow ease of access to services.”

For further information about the relocation of the Summit County Court of Common Pleas – General Division Adult Probation Department, please contact, Andrew J. Bauer, Court Executive Officer, at 330-643-2162. Additional information about the Adult Probation Department is also available at www.summitpcourt.net by choosing the “Adult Probation” icon.