Summit County Judge Joy Malek Oldfield Tests Positive for Covid-19

Summit County, Ohio: Court officials announced today that Summit County Common Pleas Court Judge Joy Malek Oldfield has tested positive for Covid-19. Oldfield was tested this week after experiencing manageable symptoms. Judge Oldfield has been working remotely, quarantined with her family while recovering.

Administrative Judge Amy Corrigall Jones said, "The General Division has been proactive in protecting our employees and the public with health safety protocols in place including wearing masks, social distancing, working remotely, and staying home when not feeling well, to avoid exposing others. The General Division wishes Judge Oldfield a speedy recovery."
